

Patient ID: TEST_001

Name: John Doe

Age: 55

Gender: Male

Systolic: N/A

Diastolic: N/A

BMI: 29

HbA1c: 8.6

Image not available

Narrative:

Moderate NPDR: multiple dot-blot hemorrhages and leak indications. Recommend 3–6 month surveillance and OCT if macular edema suspected. Lesion metrics: exudates=2.5, hemorrhages=5.0 The heatmap does not show a concentrated activation; evidence is distributed. Recommended actions: Arrange ophthalmology follow-up in 3–6 months; consider OCT if macular edema suspected.

Moderate NPDR: multiple dot-blot hemorrhages and leak indications. Recommend 3–6 month surveillance and OCT if exudates=2.5, hemorrhages=5.0 The heatmap does not show a concentrated activation; evidence is distributed. Recommended actions: Arrange ophthalmology follow-up in 3–6 months; consider OCT if macular edema suspected.

Image not available

Image not available

© 2025 | Explainability & Reporting System